

I am an amateur radio operator holding the call sign N4KM and I hold an extra class license. BPL is a very bad idea. Tests have shown that it will render the frequencies in the area of the power lines from 2 to 80 mhz unusable. Ham radio operators will not be able to perform the free public services that they provide if this is allowed. Please consider this carefully.